Edward K. Blodnick

Edward K. Blodnick graduated from Harvard College and received his Juris Doctorate from Columbia Law School in 1957. He is a member of the New York, New Jersey and Florida State Bars and is licensed to practice in New York district courts, as well as the Federal Courts of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court.

Mr. Blodnick concentrates his practice in complex corporate litigation and issues surrounding the corporate practice of medicine.

Mr. Blodnick has an AV® Preeminent™ rating (5.0 out of 5.0) with Martindale-Hubbell, which is the highest rating an attorney can obtain. Martindale-Hubbell is a peer review process that rates lawyers. Such a rating indicates that Mr. Blodnick has been recognized by other attorneys for possessing the highest levels of skill and integrity.

Thomas R. Fazio

Thomas R. Fazio graduated from Syracuse University and earned his Juris Doctorate from City University of New York. He became a member of the New York State Bar in 1986. In 1996, Mr. Fazio began his own law practice, serving corporations and small businesses in New York State. He has also spent nine years serving as in-house counsel for secured commercial lenders with annual revenues in the billions of dollars.

Mr. Fazio enjoys using his unique experience and varied resources to negotiate and document important business transactions for large and small businesses. He concentrates in corporate formations, structure and finance, as well as operation and funding of medical facilities across the country.

James E. Clark

James E. Clark earned his BBA, MBA and Juris Doctorate from Hofstra University. He became a member of the New York State Bar in 2002. Mr. Clark began his practice serving some of the most preeminent financial institutions, securities exchanges, companies, families and private equity funds in such areas as mergers and acquisitions, venture capital transactions, real estate transactions, estate and tax planning, securities and regulatory compliance and general corporate representation as an associate at Milbank, Tweed, Hadley & McCloy LLP. In 2005, Mr. Clark started his general law practice, representing some of the same organizations, businesses, and individual clients.

Mr. Clark's practice is dedicated to representing landlords and active real estate investors in their transactional, planning and litigation matters. He enjoys efficiently handling routine matters, but lives for taming the more complex litigation and transactional matters for his clients.
